Are you seeking an escort agency?

Every month our list grows more and more as people purchase my “How to Start and Run an Escort Agency” manual.

The good thing about my lists is that most everyone is seriously interested in the escort industry.

A lot (not all) of these escort agencies who have purchased my book on “How to Start and Run an Escort Agency” have come to me seeking my help to find them girls to work for them.

They tell me they are unable to find reliable professional escorts who really care about them as a business, and respect their clients.

I really feel bad not being able to help them, and I always tell them I can’t find them escorts because it can be challenging to find great escorts who don’t miss work, respect the agency, love being an escort, and don’t try to steal the agency’s clients or money.

I also have a lot of girls who cry to me that they can’t find ethical professional agencies, so I started to brainstorm a solution for both sides, and decided to start decided to start this advertising package because so many people have been asking me for this.

This way my reputation stays intact, and everyone is happy.

Note: I can not guarantee the quality of the agencies. Some will adhere to my work ethics and professionalism, others will not.

You must screen them all yourself with the form I provided for you in your package.

As you already know, starting off with a good agency can be a good first step if you find an agency that cares about you as an escort.

So, here is your chance to call out to my list, and hopefully you will find an agency who has taken my manual and work ethic to heart.

Below is our rate chart for the “seeking escort agency” ads, so when you are ready, please click on the package you would like to place, and this will take you right to the payment page.

If you have any additional questions, please feel free to contact me, or if you wish to advertise more often, please e-mail me for custom pricing.

All prices are calculated on a monthly basis, meaning you are paying for your ads per month, and payment is required in advance.

As the list grows, we reserve the right to change our pricing.

One last final note...

I'm not sure if you are interested in advertising to other girls on this list who may want to partner up with you so whenever you have a call you can't take she takes it and vice versa, or you two do a show together, stags together, etc.

If there is enough interest there, I will create a rate card for that too, so just e-mail me if you are interested.

Thank you

Michelle
